Bristol, May 21st 1852

My dear Mr. May.

Though I cannot forbear regretting that I have not been able to write to you by any opportunity, I neither dwell upon my disappointment nor ask the price for my neglect: they have been cruel. tables, & probably much more unpleasant to them than to you. I could not have written to you before, as I should wish to write, without an entire day of strength, & an undisturbed opportunity, which neither my health nor your Cause could bear with advantage to injury. I believe however, that in all practicable, the letters between Miss Anne Weston, Mrs Loring & you are duly sent, & my daughter Lucy by the other, have doubtless a general outline of all necessary information.

The first of your two kind letters I acknowledge is that written March 1st with the box of invaluables forwarded from Dublin. We look at its contents with some of the interest you express in receiving our box & donations to the Bazaar. The Liberator, the Bazaar, the Gazette, Mr Garrison's Works & the Letter to Kossuth, are particularly valuable in my sight as publick gifts I docomend it: and let me thank you much for your private addition of the American Almanac, the "Sanitary Report," & other pamphlets. Our best thanks to Mrs. May for "Uncle Tom's Cabin:" we have read it with great interest, & think it will be very instructive & useful here. Fortunately a 2/6 edition is just printed in London, of which I have ordered 3 copies. The little said about Colonization does not appear to me as any great support of the scheme: it comes in naturally.

A general sentiment exists here, & I partake of it, that the Colon: cause, & it, badly intended, an important Colony may be founded in Liberia Boundaries & future benefit to Africa & even to America -

I am glad it occurred to me to send you a "Times" with D'Israeli's article.
I am always wishing you to see what is going forward here: but it is a rather perplexing affair to send so many documents as we are desirous of dispersing to the many friends who would like to see them. We are not niggardly of time or money in procuring & sending about these publications -

My daughter has been working very hard in putting together "Statements" in reply to Campbell, & Mr. Webb has been indefatigable in helping, especially in the mechanical part: their joint printing "introductory Remarks," I am sure you will like. Mr. Webb has just told me we can send a pamphlet under 2½ oz. to Am. for one penny. - this is new to me. If true, you should profit by the reduction.

+ These attacks of the "Banner" are much injurious to your Society in this part of the world. How is no getting a counter-statement before the thousands who read, & believe the charges. Many now, ance D'Cy article, think it hardly decent to allude to Mr Garrison! But only renders the duty of replying more imperative. With you, the charges must be too pst to do any harm: it is otherwise among our own Subscribers & friends Mrs Jeffs appears W. L. G. name, more than once, or twice Mr. James will pay for his Liberators I will speak to Mr Webb about the £. of Wright £1.5.0 - I beg you will never hesitate to be as particular as possible about any money transactions, between us, - I never settle or hear of any arrears, or anticipations. It would be a great advantage, & I think no trouble to trouble if Mr Wallcutt were (as he once did,) to send receipts for the Libr We Cork & our receipts & remittances duly & punctually for the future.

I saw Mrs Jeffers often in London: she had no tidings of her fearful accident: the alteration in her Cork generally during the last 12 years is immense: she is hardly 2/ to be recognized. Miss Gabbett is devoted to her. I mean talk to Mrs Hobart her health, as her fancies about remedies & doctors attend me an endless Quackery - Write me more - I shall hear your views on Lyttle holiday, & generally accordingly Thurs - - Par Hamerton does not make away in public & Tennis &c.

Post card, for his portrait is a false one: he would be asking a more manly hand were he to set to work & some honest enterprise & relieve his wife & family & friends handsomer manner - In his present deadness sensibility he is severely handled, this in proceedings he is severely handled, this in reality he has done nothing discreditable - It is uncertain if he will be returned for the T. Hamlets. With any regard for him, I am sometimes in clined to hope he may be defeated & may be compelled to learn a Latin in which he has little influence - I am pressed to see my invaluable friend Mr Grant of the Mail &c attacking L. J. most disheartening cruelly & violently - You know, Mistress, that I was in London in April for a fortnight: my time there was much devoted in adhering & faithfully Edw.d Matthews in his battle with Isabella, for here she had no friend, there was could give him the assistance he needed.

She is an excellent fellow, & tho' a Liberty Party man, — an orthodox Methodist — (in Mat. Worden & Mat. Cyr a make & hypocrite,) I greatly respect him, & see his doing a work here which A Sam. W. Phillips could not effect.
And he is a means of enabling us to work among the orthodox, & even to defending the Am. Anti-Sl. ~~Convention~~ ~~in its contest.~~

Your other unacknowledged letter bears date Feb.y 8th. 1852. You take in it a very correct view of Dr. Matthews. It was but justice, & at the same time great wisdom in Mr. Garrison to insert in the report of a lecture of Mr. M's in the Lib.r of Apl. 9, the few words of commendation of Mr. M. following the lecture. It will remove some of the ungrounded suspicion extensively prevailing here, & of course help us by our shame. Lib.r, that

W. L. G.'s best friends have not a word to say for his any one who does not in entire sympathy with the "Am. A. S. Soc." I find that with many of our sensible allies, Mrs. Chapman & Miss Weston rather stronghand, than removed this impression.

I sampled in your letter to Mrs. H. Thomas, you answered decidedly & one comment you must have made upon Geo. Thompson's boorish ness. There can be no impropriety of letting in U. S. light upon a Carpenter. Mrs. H. T. is invaluable as respects the Bazaar, & there her U. S. ceases. She is a wonderful doer, but not a reader; & literally, knows nothing of the U. S. movement.
Doubt if she ever read even a Bazaar Gazette, excepting what related to the Bristol bot: Somebody of the Lib.^r & Standard, she has sent in her whole life, read as much of them as 2 copies of each would contain. From her brother Russell's box a copy went in that the Boston Abolition ists, Garrison, Garnett, Phillips &c. her brother friends & Garnett, Phillips &c.
She will never converse on the subject, & it is useless to send her any printed matter to read.
If she had read her brother's "Letters" she would swear by them. Mrs. Carpenter knows more but says as little. She cannot bear to join with Dr. Waterston & Dr. Hale, &c as friends & cor-correspondents, this "he admits she cannot put to bear Dr. Garnett preach. I believe she thinks more highly of R. L. C's "Letters on Am. Slavery" than she chooses to let me know. I hope you received R. C. Letter from Whitfield? I begged him to send you a copy & I hope you will notice the work. R. C. is greatly annoyed at the admission she received from which appeared in the Mt. Co. of Feb. 14 & which Douglass copied into his paper. R. C. wrote an angry letter to the Md. Ad. about it which the Ed. very civilly inserted. He has not responded manded R. C's conduct in his last annoyance in the accusation of having "restrained prayer", a perfectly legitimate charge, & he does not disprove it, only contradicts it. He concludes his letter to family, by saying that he has labored in Anti-Slavery cause "more abundantly than most men" — but probably adds, "according to this light". A subsequent "Correspondent" shows him, that "light" was darkness. At Bridgewater, N. C. last, I think, when the friends of Liberty all the hostile from the town left town. They said nothing to the Boys.

Yours

Joan & Mary's respects to Mr. Whitfield

3rd to send you a copy of Mr. Green's "Quakerism." to which Mr. Webb alludes in his pamphlet I must answer. Mr. Webb has in part not right in describing the work as engrossing, & his hint as to individuals dismissed Mr Jry. J. J. Gurney, themselves of Bristol &c but he does not see what a true revelation it makes to those out of the body, of the silly ways, absurdities & cruelties of "Friends." The process made in which Bristol "Friends" pay Church rates may not be true. but the spirit & other proceedings is not exaggerated: they pay their tithes & in quite as smashing by sacrificial a manner as Mr. Green describes. I am sure the work will make you sore. Mr. May laugh.

I purpose being in London during the Whitsun week to attend the Annivs. of the B. & F. Unitr. Assn., for once, to be a peaceful attendant, — unless any Am.
Ministers like the letters of dubious C. L. character, or any complimentary Resolutions passed towards "our Am. brethren," ignoring their pilgrim-visit. I crushed Dr. Richard R. L. C. the other day, by telling him I doubted not the spirit & aim we had set up last year, would be the means of preventing any Am. Unit. Missionaries, who were not known to be true A. Slaves, from coming to visit us publicly. This is the spirit in which he specially says, calling it "illiberal," "uncommunicating" & thoroughly opposed to Unit. tolerance.

~~Let no one who knows the Committee~~ Dr. Hale has been writing sad stuff to Lady Carpenter about the Fug. Slave Law, which "dying out;" - "that the trouble & pleasure of returning him was so great, that such things would not be attempted again" that "their duty was clearly to be peaceable & not interfering," - "they must bear, but not resist the law;" as "he abounded in Christian forbearance"; - that "he & his friends were quite misunderstood" here, &c. &c. - all of which Slavery Soc. Q swallowed. Mr. Allen too has been writing to R. L. C. an approved letter, detailing his judicious & Unitarian. Lux Mundi, are quite up to his help, in this Slave behalf. I shall send you Unit. Ad. of April 10th containing the correspondence between Dr. Matthews & Scibla in which Scibla sneaked so disrespectfully out of the interview with Matthews which he had decided to desire, & had dared to invite.

I suspect nothing has damaged S. more than this. I consulted M. in all the fact, & we are stuck to the point of the interview upon the liberal terms M. proposed & S. refused, & would not be led any other step by Scibla's artful nature

When in London I shall endeavour to get Mr. Matthews to come & meet Mr. Wells & Mr. Brown. My Copying will probably be in the house where B. is, 21 Cecil St. Strand.

Mr. Grant did not reply to Mr. Garrison's Constable in their controversy, & had made up his mind not to do so, before he read it. I took it to the office of the N. Ador-(G. Thompson having given me his copy) when it arrived in London; but finding both in the most amiable frame of mind, (Just ably under some influence from a Cigar. verdict) I had with him the preceding day) and having decided not to return to the subject, I did not leave the Lib.y with her The Ld.s j.a daily English letter, must be infallible. it is Mrs. wrights to let him silent, if so disposed, when he has gone "beyond his guidings" (vide Lusterium) this to compel him to do anew mischief in manufacturing a false position. Mr. Grant is really most valuable to us. he wrote an excellent article in the 7th May "N.A." [illegible] a copy was sent you. Always remember Mr Grant is very evangelical, & you will see his merit in converting to truth with "infidel" Abol.

You shall see some medical remarks which I will reply to on a separate leaf when a letter from a London friend came this morn saying that a day or two since, at a large party she was, she says, "sitting like a Queen among her grand, but middle-class (meaning vulgar looking) friends when Lucretia Lucretia Mott! The meeting was very pleasant to both parties who were friends.
We respected Lucretia very much before, but did not know it before — I felt certainly bound to do. She, so "favoured some, is bound to do.

by the • If a pamphlet come to you with only a penny charged to us, let me know what you have to pay for it.

• Mary daughter is hard at work copying with the other secretary Miss Tribe, an Am. Asst of the "B. & Clifton Ladies A.S." in which the whole history of its connexion with & separation from the "B. & F.A.S." will be brought. It will probably be a valuable historical document

How I should like to read it to you, Mr Lumley & Miss A. Worsley. It will form an admirable complement to the pamphlet of Mrs Lumley & Webb, as relating to the "B. & F.A.S."

Capt. Stuart & Johnson's bible were duly paid & worked for the Bible Society & are daily mentioned.

We have invited Mrs (Sarah) Pugh to visit us, & she has promised to come — "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in the English edition is already flying about.

With our kind regards to Mrs Thos, Jas & dear Friend, with a hundred other things I should like to say, sincerely yours

What is the best form of sending money to Boston by post?

My daughter begs to inclose, as some slight of the work of the Ladies' Sew, which took place at the "South Dorm Capitol Union" Island the "South Dorm Capitol Union" with the Sec's note, which may be published if desirable - Inclosed they will find the Resolves to be published. The "Resolves" have in the usual dispensation way given the substance of the Resolves concerning all reference to the "B. C. & L. R. R."
& to its transmission to the U.S.

W. W. Brown writes me word of the cruel attempt of Seddle to injure him, & he has at last called him to account. Samuel Robinson, (whom I wrote of to Mr. Quincy) has been shamefully tracked by J. Sanders Mr Garrison will recollect him? Robinson.

Mr Whitfield will be sending to Boston about to day, & will inclose the Sheriff & divers recent documents of the Ladies A. S. Soc'y - Mr Armstrong tells me he ad vises to send a letter by it to you - Whitfield his family are his daughter's - Shall send Emma W. to day with Miss Parker, the lady before referred to, that Mr Quincy & probably to go & to Switzerland -
